THANK YOU!!

The family fun night committee would like to extend a huge thank you to all the parents who helped run the games Friday night, the teachers who let us use the classrooms, and to the students that helped us set up beforehand. We also want to thank the high school girls, and Megan Brummel and her sister for volunteering their help and talents as well. We are so glad that it was a successful night! Feedback on games and prizes are always welcome, especially from people running the games! Feel free to email, suggestions and feedback to da_deroon@hotmail.com. Thank you again to everyone for their help!
